

Patent application of Deborah Kaplan
for "PERSONAL FLOTATION VEST" continued – page 15

ABSTRACT

A personal floatation device that includes a front floatation member that work in conjunction with a buoyant head stabilizing member extending from the top of the back and shoulder area, floatation placed under the buttocks to provide a comfortable and stable platform for supporting the user in a substantially horizontal position. There is a side zipper under the right side arm area to the right side leg area that allows easy installation, removal and comfort. A handle is attached to the head stabilizer member for easy retrieval from the water.